

Humber-wide Learning Event: A Call to Action!

Following International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women and Girls, and to acknowledge and close the 16th Day of activism on the 10th December 2024, we are proud to be hosting a live streaming of the full 90-minute docudrama LOVE? depicting Sam Beckinsale lived experience of coercive and controlling behaviour.

The live streaming of LOVE? will be held on the 10th December 2024
If you would like to host, organise and co-ordinate a live streaming of this with us, please complete and return the booking form below.

A Call to Action!

The Domestic Abuse Services in Humberside are currently supporting 3023 victims and their children experiencing domestic abuse.

Can you help us to raise awareness across Humberside by reaching 3023 practitioners, by working together we can make a difference for families who are impacted by domestic abuse

The challenge is on!

Be creative, your event can be large or small, the whole organisation, partnership gathering or as small as a staff team meeting or informal gathering.

Event timings:

- 9.15am Registration
- 9.30am Opening by Sam Beckinsale and first half streaming of the docudrama Love?
- 10.20am Comfort break for networking and discussion, and refreshment (if provided)
- 10.40am Second half streaming of the docudrama Love?
- 11.25am Q&A hosted by Sam Beckinsale until 11.45am
- 11.45am Event closes

Room and equipment you will need:

- A room for the main event and space if you are providing refreshments.
- A laptop to join the MS Team invite for you to live stream at your event.
- A screen and sound to stream the film to your audience.

What else will I need to do?

- Invite people to your event and take a register of attendees to be returned to us.
- Collate questions from your audience and drop into the chat facility on teams for Sam to answer.
